

8 Questions to Ask When Searching for a Private School

1

What are your school's philosophy and values?

2

What is the school's program focus, or "strength"?

3

How many of your teachers have advanced degrees? degrees in their field?

4

What are the key components of your school's curriculum? (How is it organized, developed, and how does it build from year to year?)

5

What learning support and social/emotional support does your school provide?

6

What options do parents have for getting involved at the school?

7

How does your school handle discipline?

8

What are your school's demographics? (How diverse is your school?)

BONUS: How did your school handle the COVID-19 pandemic? (Ask about what the school did to keep students and families safe, as well as about the quality of the learning during the pandemic)

